Shri Somnath Verma, counsel for the petitioner.

The petitioner, who is the Secretary of Social Organization, has filed this petition in the form of Public Interest Litigation alleging that in compliance of the scheme launched by Union of India for the welfare of people below the poverty line, the funds made available by the Central Government are being mis-used by respondent No.1, who has been entrusted with the construction of houses for such people.It has also been alleged that the building material being used by respondent No.1 is of low quality. The construction has been made in down level area where rainwater is stored during rainy season.

From perusal of the petition it is found that the petitioner has not made any attempt to bring these above irregularities and corruption of respondent No.1 before the authorities of respondents No.2 &3.

In the above circumstances, this petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to take suitable steps by bringing the facts alleged in this petition to the authorities of respondents No.2 & 3 and even then if the cause of action survives, the petitioner is at liberty to file a fresh petition.

The petition is disposed of with liberty as aforesaid.
